

Partners in Production Input Financing for 2008

Your Cooperative is once again offering the input financing program Partners in Production for the 2008 crop year. We have been pleased to offer this program in past years, and feel it is a solid financing program for our patrons to consider. Please contact your local agronomy office or Chuck Squires at the Pigeon Business Office for details.