

Cooperative Elevator Co. introduces new information delivery system

Keep up to date with the latest Coop news and events by signing up for our automated messaging service. Simply fill out the form below by checking which area or areas you have interest in and information will be delivered in a message to the phone number you specify. If you are interested in seed or crop protection news, also include the crop(s) you grow. Information regarding grower meetings, agronomy alerts, and bean marketing updates will be delivered using this system. A recorded message will play to a live answer or can be delivered to voice mail. Get the latest information on a timely basis as soon as it is available. The service is free for Coop patrons. Sign up today! The completed form can be dropped off at any of our locations.
